On November 8, 2018, Customs and Border Protection (CBP), were conducting operations at the Progreso Port of Entry (POE) when they encountered Brian James CHAMPION (DOB: 08-27-1977) attempting to enter the United States via the pedestrian lanes. During the inspection, CBP Officers received a declaration from CHAMPION claiming two bottles of prescription Xanax medication as well as one box of Sildenafil, commonly known as Viagra. CHAMPION was referred to secondary for an intensive examination. During the secondary inspection, CBP Officers discovered six glass vials labeled as Fentanilo (Fentanyl, a Schedule II controlled substance) inside the Sildenafil box.

Homeland Security Investigations (HSI), Special Agents (SA) responded to the Progreso, POE to interview CHAMPION. CHAMPION was read his Miranda Rights, in English, and subsequently waived his rights, both orally and in writing.

CHAMPION freely stated that the purpose of his trip to Mexico was to pick up Fentanyl from a pharmacy located in Progreso. CHAMPION stated post Miranda that he knew the Fentanyl was concealed inside the Sildenafil box to prevent detection by CBP Officers. CHAMPION further stated that he knew that it was illegal to bring the Fentanyl into the United States.
